ArchOmaha Students “Unite” in Creativity

Students, get a chance to represent your school and see your artwork displayed at Unite!

On June 8, 2019, experience your faith in a new way - a vibrant, joy-filled, one-day Catholic event called ArchOmaha Unite! Thousands of Catholics from every corner of the archdiocese will rally together to celebrate hope, family, community and ALL the things that make us ‘who we are’ in the Archdiocese of Omaha. Unite wouldn’t be complete without our Catholic students and their talents and creativity.

All Catholic school, Religious Ed and homeschool students are invited to submit original, creative work with the theme of “UNITY.” Each school may then choose up to 3 submissions to be potentially displayed (space permitting) in the CHI Health Convention Center at Unite on June 8th. Submissions should be dropped off or sent to the Catholic Schools Office by May 1. Please use the online form here to provide submission information. You may also find the form and more info about Unite at www.Unite.ArchOmaha.org; just click on “About.”

Submissions may be in the areas of:

Perform at Unite!

Calling all music ensembles - Get a chance to perform your music at Unite!

On June 8, 2019, experience your faith in a new way - a vibrant, joy-filled, one-day Catholic event called ArchOmaha Unite! Thousands of Catholics from every corner of the archdiocese will rally together to celebrate hope, family, community and ALL the things that make us 'who we are' in the Archdiocese of Omaha. Unite wouldn't be complete without our Catholic students and their talents and creativity.

All Catholic school choirs and music ensembles are invited to participate by performing just outside of the CHI Health Center Arena at select times during the event. Just apply here by March 15, and we'll choose 16 ensembles and give them designated time slot on June 8. You may also find the online form and more info about Unite at www.Unite.ArchOmaha.org; just click on "About." Ensembles will be chosen and notified of their time slots by April 15.

Ensembles must:

- Prepare a selection of songs lasting approximately 30 mins.
- Pick a selection of hopeful and/or upbeat songs in keeping with the theme of the event.
- Be an ensemble of at least 8 and no more than 10 students.
- May be an instrumental or vocal ensemble. (Please note that you will not have access to power for amplification.)
